IQBAL REVIEW
Journal of the Iqbal Academy Pakistan

This Journal is devoted to research studies on the life, poetry and thought of Iqbal and on those branches of learning in which he was interested: Islamic Studies, Philosophy, History, Sociology, Comparative Religion, Literature, Art and Archaeology.

Manuscripts for publication in the journal should be submitted in duplicate, typed in double-space, and on one side of the paper with wide margins on all sides. Abstracts in English should be typed double-spaced on a separate page. Computer diskettes along with original and duplicate manuscripts are welcomed in Office 2000.

In order to facilitate academic review and production, authors must conform to the following: 1) the name of the author, address, phone numbers, title, and name(s) of universities must appear on the title page of the article; 2) footnotes are to be numbered consecutively and must appear at the end; 3) all foreign words must appear underlined with properly placed diacritical marks. Five off-prints of the articles and two copies of book reviews will be sent to authors.

All contributions should be addressed to the Editor, Iqbal Review, 6th Floor, Academy Block, Aiwan-e-Iqbal Complex, Khayaban-e-Aiwan Iqbal, Lahore, Pakistan or P.O. Box. No.1308 G.P.O. Lahore.
